MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Legislative Liaison

ATTENTION:

FROM:

Chief, Special Security Center
Office of Security

SUBJECT: Processing of Access Approvals
for Library of Congress Employees

1. It is my understanding that employees of The Library of Congress are conducting research for the Defense Intelligence Agency requiring access to Sensitive Compartmented Information. This memorandum outlines the procedures required for obtaining these accesses and the responsibilities of the Agencies involved.

2. Effective this date, all requests for SCI accesses (Forms 2018a) for Library of Congress employees will originate with your office. These individuals will be identified to you by letter from Joseph Love, Personnel Security Officer, Library of Congress. Mr. Love will obtain the candidates for this from consultations with  DIA. STAT

3. The Special Security Center, CIA will obtain the necessary approvals and arrange for briefing the employees as required, the SSC will also certify their access to DIA. These are the same procedures currently in effect for other miscellaneous Offices of the U.S. Congress.
